

PUBLIC FUNDING MECHANISMS for AFTER SCHOOL SNACKS

PROGRAM	TARGET POPULATION	MINIMUM NUTRITION REQUIREMENTS	RE-IMBURSEMENT RATE (2006)	NOTES
National School Lunch Program (NSLP)	Children K-12 in public or private school-based afterschool settings	At least 2 components from the grain, F/V, milk, or protein groups	Free - $0.65 Reduced - $0.32 Paid - $0.06	Snacks provided by the School Food Service Department
Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP)	School-age children age 19 or under at schools, non-profits, or public agencies	At least 2 components from the grain, F/V, milk, or protein groups	Free - $0.65 Reduced - $0.32 Paid - $0.06	Programs must be located in a geographical area served by a school in which 50% or more of the children enrolled are eligible for free or reduced price school meals
Summer Food Service Program (SFSP)	potential sponsors are non-profits, local govt agencies, schools	At least 2 components from the grain, F/V, milk, or protein groups	Urban: $0.6475 Rural or self prep (r/sp) sites: $0.6625	In the summer, SFSP sites can be re-imbursed for up to two meals/day: Breakfast: $1.585 (r/sp= $1.615) Lunch/Supper: $2.7825 (r/sp= $2.8275)
California Community Child Nutrition Pilot Project (CCCNPP)	community and municipal organizations, such as Park and Rec, Boys and Girls Clubs, and cities that run the SFSP	At least 2 components from the grain, F/V, milk, or protein groups	$0.6125	SFSP sponsors can serve snacks year-round by filling out a simple amendment to their SFSP agreement
California Fresh Start Pilot Program (CFSP) FY 2007 Grt#CA1074	K-12 schools, school-based after school programs	One serving of fruit and/or vegetables (no deep-fried or juice)	$0.10	Schools that already offer two servings of fruit or vegetables at breakfast may use the re-imbursement for serving F/V as an after school snack
Free Meals: 130% or below the federal poverty guideline: < $26,000/yr for a family of four		Reduced-price Meals: 130% to 185% of the poverty guidelines: < $37,000 /yr for a family of four		Paid Meals: above 185% of the poverty guidelines: > $37,000/yr for a family of four